

Allan Hallquist, MD is the Pathologist Medical Director for DiaTech Oncology. Dr. Hallquist received his Medical Doctor (M.D.) from S.U.N.Y. Upstate Medical Center in Syracuse, New York in 1980.

Dr Hallquist is a licensed physician who is Board Certified by the National Board of Medical Examiners, the American Board of Pathology and the Anatomic and Clinical Pathology. During his career, Dr. Hallquist has held several professional positions:

PROFESSIONAL AND SOCIETY
MEMBERSHIPS:

Cincinnati Society of Pathologist
Kentucky Medical Association
Northern Kentucky Medical Society
Ohio Society of Pathologists
American Medical Association
American Society of Clinical Pathology
College of American Pathologists

PROFESSIONAL OFFICES HELD:

Member, Quality Control Committee,
New York Society of Pathologists
1986-89

Sec-Treas., Cincinnati Society of
Pathologists, 1994-95

President, Cincinnati Society of
Pathologists, 1995-96

Board of Directors,
Northern Kentucky Medical Society
1992 to 2006

Vice President, Northern Kentucky
Medical Society, 1994-95

President Elect, Northern Kentucky
Medical Society, 1997

President, Northern Kentucky
Medical Society, 1998 - 2000

Member, Kentucky Medical Association
Education Committee 1999 to 2006

Member, KMA
Cancer Committee 2001 to 2006

Dr. Hallquist directs all research and testing activity at the DiaTech Oncology Laboratory.